

had to be examined by the doctor and all kinds of fool things. Finally as the sailing hour approached they dug up the tickets in a long lost drawer and the day was saved. The sheik took his lady friends ashore and got the most lovely flowers. They even had the energy to dance in the afternoon. I weakened and got a deck chair, another few dollars shots--I wonder if I will get home! After dinner Luffy read us "Nice Baby" in her usual fine style then the band struck up and we had a little exercise. The Sheik introduced himself and he really is the most heavenly dancer, tall and Danish and black wavy hair--brown eyes. I find he has not the wife as yet. Has been to Florida, Mexico, all over the States and Canada, so speaks very good English. His lady love can hardly understand a word. They are going to Chicago.

August 8, Sunday

To-night I'm so dam cold. Sitting in my chair. The Sheik came along and told me I was turning my back on Scotland. I'll say I was! I found the Orkney Islands wonderful, immense cliffs with shier drops into the sea. Wow! How I'd hate to rub my nose against them. It is 8:30 yet they stand about already and you can see the green tops. The band played in the usual grand style and we frolicked about. The sheik's fond lady wore her fur coat dancing, she is short, a battle blond, and has the result of a blackened eye. He must be unduly rough. I passed by them saying a fond good-night. It was quite the berries. In the passenger list I found his name to be Jenson.
